A Parish of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Westminster

TWENTY THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

5th Sept. 2021

Remember Me?

About five years ago, you may recall a visit from our Vocations Promoter Canon Wilson and a group of seminarians. They had come to promote vocations to the Priesthood in this parish of Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. George. As God would have it, I was selected to 'headline' this particular talk speaking about my time discerning my vocation in sunny northern Spain. I was told by two now seminarians for our Diocese how memorable it was. I shall spare naming them but let's just say they are both from this parish and our newest recruit is preparing to leave for sunny northern Spain to discern his vocation in just over a week's time.

So a little about me...I was born in Ealing, West London but raised in Heston. My parents hail from Trinidad and Tobago and I have one sibling, Thomas. I was fortunate to have had an entirely Catholic upbringing and education, later reading Theology at St. Mary's University, Twickenham. I joined the seminary in 2014, aged 21 and spent my first year in Valladolid, Spain. I then spent six happy years in Chelsea at Allen Hall Seminary and was ordained at Westminster Cathedral on 26th June 2021. I have always loved the arts, and had hoped to become an actor. I have a particular interest in film, renaissance art and music and as an occasional pastime enjoy sitting at the piano.

Upon reflection, it must be God's providence that I return to Enfield to serve as Assistant Priest. My time here so far as a 'paid extra' has been both humbling and reassuring. Humbling, because of your manifest love for priests as well as the welcome I have received and reassuring because I am of the firm belief that I am where God wants me to be. Please pray that I may be faithful in serving this parish whom the Lord has entrusted to me. I shall keep you in mine daily, praying that you may remain in His love.
