TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

17th October 2021

'Buenos Días'

Greetings from the Royal and Pontifical English College of St Alban, Valladolid, Spain

Fr Daniel has asked me to give you an insight into the life of a seminarian and what I will be up to over the coming year.

The seminary was founded in 1589, to train priests for the mission in England and Wales as it was then illegal to be a Catholic. Seminarians and newly ordained priests from the College would return to England and often give their lives in defence of the faith; some of whom have been Beatified and Canonised by the Church.

In 1596, during the ransacking of Cadiz by English sailors, a statue of Our Lady and the Infant Jesus was hacked and desecrated. Providentially, that statue fittingly named 'Vulnerata' meaning 'The Wounded One' resides in the English College Chapel and seminarians have by tradition made reparation for the past by praying each day, asking the intercession of Our Lady Vulnerata and our Martyr Saints, for us present, as well as for former students and benefactors of the College.

Nowadays, the College runs a one-year Propaedeutic programme focusing on human and spiritual formation. All seminarians now have to complete this year before going on to major seminaries to complete their studies in Philosophy and Theology.

There are currently 18 seminarians, aged between 20-50. We are a very diverse group, hailing from Dioceses in England, Northern and Republic of Ireland, Canada, Denmark, Norway and Sweden.

There are four resident formation staff, as well as visiting lecturers, psychologists and support staff.

The daily life of the College revolves around community prayer. We begin with silent meditation at 7.15am, followed by morning prayer and Mass. After breakfast, we have classes all morning in-house, ranging from Spirituality and Spanish, to Ecclesiology and Ethics. Post lunch, we have time for private study, choir practice, as well as, fortnightly one-to-one Spiritual Direction. The afternoon also provides time for various house jobs.

At the moment, I am one of four sacristans, who are responsible for the liturgy. Before dinner, we return to Chapel for evening prayer. In the evening we are free to explore the beautiful city with its tapas bars and restaurants. Saturday is our day off and we use this time to explore Valladolid and the wider region of Castilla y León.

Please be assured of my prayers for you all. I humbly ask for yours, as well as for John Casey and Peter Jones. May God bless you all.

October - Month of the Holy Rosary. On weekdays in OLSG the Litany & Rosary are said before 12noon mass. Please note that during the month of October, we will also pray a decade of the rosary at the end of mass on weekdays.

Mass on Fridays. As well as the 12noon Mass, there will also be Mass at 10am on Fridays this autumn. Parishioners are welcome to attend. Pupils & teachers from St George's School will attend on some Fridays.

November - Month of the Holy Souls Book of Remembrance. After All Souls' Day, every day of November one Mass will be offered for the Holy Souls. Please add the names of your own dear departed to the lists available in the porch, and return them (with a donation in the envelope marked 'Holy Souls' if you wish), so that they can form part of the Book of Remembrance that will remain on the altar for the month of November.

Requiem Mass on Monday 15th November at 7pm for the families and friends of those who have died in the last year followed by refreshments in the parish centre. We need a few volunteers to assist Marion Keable with the refreshments. Please contact the parish secretary if you are able to help. Thank you.

Justice & Peace. The Justice & Peace group work in the parish to raise awareness and join in actions for a more just and peaceful world. The Group is involved in organising annual parish activities such as the annual greeting card campaign to Human rights defenders, the annual collection for the Manna Centre for homeless people, and the parish Fair Trade Fayre. We do all we can to support CAFOD various campaigns promoting the protection of the environment & tackling injustice faced by our brothers and sisters in the developing world. If you would like to learn more please join us on Monday 18th October at 7.30pm on zoom. Please contact Tony email tsheen@cafod.org.uk for the code.

SVP Coffee Morning will be taking place on Saturday 30th October in the Parish Centre from 10am. Good Company with coffee and cakes. All are welcome.

All Saints Fairtrade Fayre, Sunday 31st October from 10am-1.30pm in the Parish Centre. A chance to taste and purchase Fairtraded products and buy Christmas cards and presents.

Interested in the Catholic Faith? There is still time for anyone to join the group in the parish who are enquiring into what Catholics believe through the parish Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults group. It meets on Tuesdays at 7pm and people who cannot make these meetings have the possibility of meeting on Saturday mornings from 11.00 am. The meetings provide enquirers with a friendly informal setting in which they may find out what Catholics believe without any commitment to becoming Catholics, though the group meetings will be invaluable to people who desire that. If you yourself would like to join the group please speak to one of the priests or contact Michael Walsh on 07403343809 or michaelwalsh2001@live.co.uk

Weekday Altar Servers. The parish is looking for one or two more adult servers to join the rota for the midday weekday Mass. If you would like to discover more, please email servers@catholicenfield.org or call Malcolm Green 020 8366 3389. Training and support will be given.

Secondary School Priest References. The Certificate of Catholic Practice (CCP) is not required for St Anne's School for Girls, St Ignatius College and Nicholas Breakspear. Those who require the signature of the Parish Priest should contact the Presbytery to book an appointment.

Primary School Priest References. The list of appointment times with the priests to obtain a Certificate of Catholic Practice will be available from Monday 18th October. Appointments involve a brief interview with the parent/carer/guardian of the child and the certificate will be provided at the interview.

The Tuesday Bereavement/Social Group will meet on 19th October after 12noon Mass in the Challoner room (presbytery entrance) with Sr Angela. All are welcome.

The 'Power of the Rosary' Prayer Group will meet on Wednesday 27th October 10.30am-11.30am, in the Challoner room (presbytery entrance). All are welcome.

Mount Carmel Ladies Group will meet in the Parish Centre at 12.45pm on Thursday 21st October. All are welcome.
