THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

23rd January 2022

Mission Possible

Our very presence at Mass is a testament to the first apostles preaching and teaching, indeed we are the fruit of those who have gone before us, in the days of old but also more recently, our grandparents, teachers, priests and religious who have instructed us in the faith, taught us our prayers and encouraged us along the way.

Thank God for their witness, time and patience in doing so, we owe much to them; for the gift of faith is our greatest treasure and yet it is not ours to bury and keep for ourselves, but to be shared and passed on.

Like the first apostles, we too have come to faith in the Son of God, we have listened to His word, we have seen his power, we have experienced something of the love of God, and we return week after week, to behold him once more at Mass and grow in our friendship with Him.

But we also have our mission, should we choose to accept it; and we should because we have been commissioned by Christ to go out and bear fruit, fruit that will last.

God chooses to work with us, He relies on us to be his voice, his hands, his feet, carrying the Good News to others who need to hear it, for their sake and for their salvation.

The Holy Father once said in a homily that:

"Faith should be shared... not to convince, but to offer a treasure...the Faith is missionary or it's not Faith."

It is not something just for me, so that I grow in faith. Faith always urges you to go out of yourself. It must be offered, especially with one's testimony."
