24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

11 September 2022

Primus inter pares

Congratulations are in order for our new Prime Minister Liz Truss. Whatever side of the fence you stand, we all can be united in praying for our leaders. Of course, this is not novel, but in fact, part of our duty as Christians. St Paul in his first letter to St Timothy, reminds us:

"First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way."

When we pray for our leaders we take part in advancing God's kingdom on earth. So what can you pray for?

Pray that our leaders may be of good character; men and women of integrity.

Pray that they may be wise and prudent as they make and enforce our laws.

Pray that their decisions may have a positive impact on our churches, schools and families. And pray always for their good and salvation.

Sir Winston Churchill once said "After a time, civil servants tend to become no longer servants and no longer civil."

Pray God, this will not be so for our new Prime Minister Liz Truss.

Fr Timothy

The Spiritans (Holy Ghost Fathers) - Appeal

It is a great pleasure to welcome Fr Terkura Igbe CSSp to Enfield this weekend. Fr Terkura is well known to many parishioners from when he was based in Garston (Herts) and offered supply here when parish clergy were not able to celebrate Mass. Fr Terkura is now based in South London, but he is here this weekend to make an appeal on behalf of the Spiritans (Holy Ghost Fathers). This appeal is the annual Mission Appeal collection. Please do give as generously as you can. In case you are wondering where you have heard of the Spiritans before, Fr Vincent (assistant priest) is also member of that Congregation. Perhaps this is an incentive to be as generous as we can be. We also pray for their work and witness. Fr Daniel

Thank You - Enfield Foodbank Collection.

Thank you to everyone who brought donations last weekend for the foodbank. We are very grateful for your continued support & generosity.

Thank you - CAFOD, DEC Pakistan Floods Appeal.

Thank you also to everyone who supported last weekend's second collection for Pakistan Floods Appeal. The monsoon rains and flash flooding across Pakistan has greatly affected people's lives and livelihoods. Homes, farms & infrastructure have been swept away. Your donation will help communities who urgently need drinking water, food and shelter.
