In Memoriam

In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders' fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place: and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders' fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high,
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders' Fields.*

John McRae (1872-1918)

November is such an evocative time of year. We see and feel the dying away of things. At the same time, we know that they will but once more come springtime.

This weekend is one of remembrance and reflection. We call to mind those who gave their lives in the cause of freedom in both world wars and in other conflicts besides. The Great War (1914-18) was thought and said to be the war to end all wars. Sadly, that proved not to be the case and we still live in a world where acts of aggression and violence feature all too heavily.

Our prayer at this time of remembrance and reflection is that there may be peace in every place and in all hearts. We pray for the departed, in particular those who have died violent deaths. And 'the torch' we hold high is that of peace, justice and reconciliation.

Thank You. Thank you for all your donations for the Enfield Foodbank collection which took place last weekend. We are extremely grateful to all parishioners for your continued generosity.

Thank you to everyone who donated to the Sick & Retired Priests' collection last weekend. Your generosity means our sick and retired priests will receive the care and support they need. If you haven't had the chance to make your donation, there is still time. You will find envelopes at the back of the church or you can donate online through the Diocese website – look out for the 'QR Code' on the envelopes and poster. The care of priests in their old age, and at a time of illness, is a priority of the Church. It is a wonderful way for us to come together and say 'Thank you' to the priests who have served us. May God bless you for your kindness.

November - Month of the Holy Souls Book of Remembrance. After All Souls' Day (Wednesday), every day of November one Mass will be offered for the Holy Souls. Please add the names of your own dear departed to the lists available in the porch, and return them (with a donation in the envelope marked 'Holy Souls' if you wish), so that they can form part of the Book of Remembrance that will remain on the altar for November.

Praying the Rosary by the Fountain - TODAY, Sunday 13th November at 7pm approx. All are invited to gather at the Enfield Fountain (near HSBC Bank/ Nandos) to pray the rosary publically with the clergy for our families, our parish and the world just after the 6pm Mass.

Mount Carmel Ladies Group will meet on Thursday 17th Nov. from 12.45pm for an afternoon with Rev. Amanda starting at 1.30pm.

Weekday Altar Servers. The parish is looking for some adult servers to join the rota for the midday weekday Mass. If you would like to discover more, please email: servers@catholickenfield.org or speak to Fr Daniel. Training and support will be given.

Tuesday Bereavement/Social Group will meet on 22nd November at 12.30pm in the Challoner Room. All are welcome.

The Sunday Café. We have sent a cheque for £100 to CAFOD. Thanks to all our volunteers and our customers whose loyalty makes these donations possible. We open every Sunday 10am-11am in the parish centre.

CATECHETICS

Deadline for application to our Foundational Catechesis (primary school year 2), First Holy Communion preparation (primary school years 3 and 4) & Confirmation preparation (secondary school year 9) was at the start of Nov. Please return your forms as soon as possible to avoid disappointment.

New Catholics. There is still time to join the parish RCIA group which meets on Tuesdays at 7pm. The meetings provide enquirers with a friendly informal setting in which they may find out what Catholics believe without any commitment to become Catholics, though the group meetings will be invaluable to people who desire that. If you would like to join please speak to one of the priests or contact Michael Walsh on 07403343809 or michaelwalsh2001@live.co.uk
